

We found profound words from President Thomas S Monson in the Ensign August 1987 that are as true today as there were when he first spoke them. "We are sons and daughters of God. True, we live in a world where moral character is [often considered] secondary to beauty or charm. But what are the inspired words of God? The counsel of the Lord to Samuel the prophet echoes in our ears: 'The Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart' (1 Sam. 16:7)."

Christ can turn tragedy into triumph. I can trust that God will guide and help me regardless of my situation. My heart can rejoice in the Lord. I can hear and obey the voice of the Lord.

Did you know you were all named after Moses?
