Farmington 15th Primary Newsletter

President Nelson teaches that as we strive to become more like our Savior, we can have a peace and joy even in difficult times. We seek, in every way we can, to hear Jesus Christ, who speaks to us through the power and ministering of the Holy Ghost.

As the school year begins again, don't forget that you have the Holy Ghost to help you when you are feeling out of place, nervous or even scared to head back to the classroom. Pray to find peace, comfort and strength.

This coming school year will be full of good times and hard times. Use what you've learned in primary to find comfort and peace through pray.
